

Media Alert

Attn: Community Leaders, Government Officials and Friends of TLOC

The Link & Option Center, Inc., Debuts Live Talk Show on CAN-TV21

“The Community Link Live Talk Show” airs Fridays through April 1

What: The Community Link Live Talk Show Hosted by The Link & Option Center
The Link & Option Center, Inc. (TLOC) will be hosting a live talk show on CAN TV21 every Friday at 4 p.m. for the next 13 weeks. Viewers will be able to call in and ask questions and the show will feature guests including community leaders, local government officials, and staff and students from TLOC. The first guest will be Ms. Twin Green, Founding President and CEO of The Link & Option Center, Inc.

Where: CAN TV21
Check your local listings

When: Friday, January 8 at 4 p.m.

About the Program:

The Community Link Live Talk Show’s format will focus on programming and services The Link & Option Center provides to the community, which includes: Excel Beyond the Bell (tutoring program); Alternative to School Suspension and Intervention; TeenREACH After School Program; Mentoring; Mental Health Juvenile Justice Counseling; Mentoring Children of Prisoners/Caregivers Choice; 6th District Court Diversion (Peer Jury); and Adult Probation Treatment Services.

About the Center:

The Link & Option Center (TLOC), located in Markham, Ill., is a multi-faceted 501c3 non-profit human services organization founded in 1995 by Ms. Twin Green. TLOC offers 9 programs and services that are designed to serve at-risk children, adolescents and their families in Chicago and south suburban Cook County, and a sub-population of young adults who are involved with the criminal justice system. The mission of TLOC is to empower youth and families with quality prevention and intervention services to create crossroads among systems of care, schools, and communities.

Contact: For more information on The Link & Option Center or the Community Link Live Talk Show, please contact Melissa Schuler at (646) 752-6427 or melissa@link-option.com